

A VOTER'S GUIDE TO ELECTION DAY

Your vote on Tuesday matters.

You've been hearing it for months: this could be the most important election of our lifetime. Now's the time to make sure your vote will count.

PURGING THE VOTER ROLLS

Who gets to vote?

Every election hinges on voter turnout. This year, all eyes are on a few states that are removing voters from the rolls in unusually large numbers.

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Voting Rights

When Americans go to the polls on Tuesday, the electorate will look different than it once did. How much do you know about the history of voting? Take the quiz to find out!

WORTH READING

News and Opinion Pieces We Found Interesting

Our disclaimer: We don't endorse every idea and opinion in the articles below, but that's the point. Finding common ground begins with listening to other points of view.

- Health Care: How many Americans are not insured? How many have pre-existing conditions? Key facts about health care and coverage, in five charts -- via Politico.
- Competitive Markets: Farm subsidies have been a feature of American life for 80 years. Are they preventing farmers from reaching their full potential? -- via The Hill.
- Debt and Deficits: No matter who wins the mid-term elections, the financial outlook is debt, debt, and more debt -- via Bloomberg.
- Foreign Policy: America's response to the murder of a Saudi journalist may impact Saudi purchases of American weapons. Peggy Noonan poses the question: How transactional is U.S. foreign policy? -- via The Wall Street Journal.
- Freedom of Religion: After another week when hate took over the national conversation, Americans sought solace at places where in the past the U.S. has confronted disaster -- via USA Today.
- Making Government Work: Voters will see a record number of ballot initiatives this year asking them to change redistricting, expand voting rights, or limit outside influence in politics. Many of these initiatives are being promoted by grassroots organizations, like the "Badass Grannies" of North Dakota -- via Politico.
- Citizenship: Despite perceptions of voter enthusiasm, the reality is that many people don't plan to vote on November 6 -- via The Washington Post.
- Citizenship: Mark Twain famously said that "A lie can travel halfway 'round the world while the truth is still putting on its shoes." He never imagined Facebook and Twitter. A team of reporters trace the rapid spread of a lie on social media: that activist billionaire George Soros is financing the group of Honduran migrants heading toward the U.S. border -- via USA Today.

Website

Facebook

Twitter

Copyright © 2018 Common Ground Solutions, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:
2604 Elmwood Avenue, #301
Rochester, NY 14618

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.